

Meetings and Events in 2022

January to June

York Anglo-Scandinavian Society (YASS) meetings are held at the Norwegian Study Centre, Quantum House, University of York, Heslington, YO10 5BR at 7.30pm. For more information about YASS, see: <https://yorkangloscan.org.uk> or send an email to yasssecretary@gmail.com.

	Wednesday 26 January 7:30 pm	An evening of new Anglo-Scandinavian Poetry	Daniel Gustafsson - a bilingual poet in York
	Saturday 19 February to Sunday 27 February	Jorvik Viking Festival	For more information, see jorvikvikingfestival.co.uk
	Thursday 24 March 7:30 pm	Apocalyptic Imagery on Anglo-Scandinavian Stone Crosses	Dr Amanda Doviak
 York Anglo-Scandinavian Society	Wednesday 27 April 7:30 pm	YASS Annual General Meeting 2022	The YASS AGM 2022 - with some Danish reflections from John Christmas
	Saturday 14 or 21 May	Visit to Murton Park Viking Village	See more at: https://murtonpark.co.uk/
	Friday 17 June 7:30 pm	Sankt Hans Aften with Bonfire and outdoor social evening	Contact YASS Secretary in advance. Please bring some refreshments to share

Covid-19 coronavirus advice: The University of York asks for face-coverings to be worn in the NSC building and meeting room. The University also expects staff and students to take regular Covid tests. This protects others, as people with coronavirus may have no symptoms, but can still pass the virus on to others.